

ChicagoMortgageSpot.com - Compensation Disclosure

Loan Requests

This website (and its parent ownership, specifically Ryzen, LLC) receive compensation by its advertisers and participating lead brokerage networks for mortgage & loan leads referred to a relevant advertiser, or pool of advertisers.

While this is 100% free for the user, this website does receive compensation when users who are eligible leads for our various advertisers submit a full loan request.

Credit Reports, Credit Help Services, & Other Related Products

This website (and its parent ownership, specifically Ryzen, LLC) receive compensation for other referral-based services as well. Most of our hyperlinks or hosted forms that indicate a service such as obtaining a credit report, fixing a credit score, applying for a credit card or a cash advance, etc. are sponsored actions for which we are paid a bounty on a "per-lead" basis.

In some cases, we may also be compensated as part of an advertising contract for a set term.

But in every case, this website exists to generate a profit by connecting qualified borrowers with quality advertisers.
